WPA Street Plans Are Being Made to Care for Workmen

Connections are Planned Between Third and Seventh Avenues Starting in the Fall

ALSO NEAR W. T.

Expect Campus Projects to Start Soon After July 1st to Complete Present Projects

Canyon will submit an extensive street improvement project under WPA to start sometime this fall. Frank Harrison, formerly with WPA, was here Monday and made a survey of the street work to be undertaken. He is preparing the project and will have it ready next Monday for the City Commission to submit to the district WPA office at Amarillo.

The street work will connect Third Avenue with Seventh Avenue on practically all the streets between the high school on the west and the highway on the east. All gaps that remain on Sixth and Seventh Avenue will be filled. A loop will be made starting from the highway at the Duffett home, east to the C. H. Jarrett home, and north to Fourth Avenue. In addition to this the street west of the Stadium and north of Stafford Hall will be widened and topped.

A. A. Meredith, district supervisor for WPA, recently asked the city to submit a street project to take care of workmen during the winter. The amount of work accomplished will depend upon the amount of money that is appropriated by congress for WPA starting the new fiscal year on July 1st.

It is expected that work on the campus will be renewed soon. This work was shut down several weeks ago because of the lack of money on the part of the state. The legislature appropriated the necessary money for this work, but WPA is not yet in position to continue the project.

It is planned that the street work will consist of caliche base and asphalt topping. No concrete curb and gutters are contemplated unless the property owners wish to pay for this additional work. It is likely that the city will be forced to call for a small bond issue during the fall to pay for the topping.

Social Security Is Explained Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Gordon James of Dallas talked at the Rotary Club Tuesday on the new Social Security act and how it affects all people of the nation. 27 million workers have so far signed up under the act. All of these will draw benefits after they reach the age of 65 years.

Every worker in the United States must come under the act with the exception of farm laborers; domestic laborers; casual laborers; city, county, state and federal employees; those engaged in scientific, religious, literary, research.

At the age of 65, employees will draw pensions according to the wages earned. The employers will benefit by the system since the government will take care of all over 65 years of age without direct taxation.

Employers who have members of their force reaching the age of 65 years, or whose employees died, are required to report the same to the Social Security division and settlement will be made as quickly as possible.

Visitors were: C. T. Crowe, M. W. Jones, C. R. McAfee, George Autry, all of Amarillo; Lonnie Byars, Guy Harp of Canyon; J. W. Reid of Dumas; G. D. Foster of Colorado; Aubrey Hilliard of Richmond, Va.

W. H. Upchurch Is In College Station To Confer With the State Board

County Agent W. H. Upchurch left yesterday for College Station where he will confer with the State Board of the Agricultural Conservation program regarding worksheets in Randall county. About 100 worksheets were sent to the State Board last week as a test. The balance of the sheets were held until it was found whether or not the State Board would order changes made in the figures as compiled by the county board.

Mr. Upchurch stated yesterday that Randall county has 317,500 acres of crop land signed up. There are 323,350 acres of land in cultivation, making a total of approximately 99 4-5% of the crop land accounted for on 1937 worksheets. 909 farms are signed up, which is a little less than last year, but the acreage is more this year owing to a few consolidations. The total acreage in the 909 farms is 409,050 acres.

Summer Session of W. T. Started on Wednesday

Good Prospects For An Increased Attendance Over 1936 Session Is Seen By Faculty

Practically 600 students were enrolled in the summer session yesterday, the opening day of registration.

The halls were crowded with students throughout the day. The enrollment for the summer session is running up to normal stated Registrar D. A. Shirley this morning.

The Art School opened yesterday at the Palo Duro Park. Indications are that the attendance will be very large.

The Coaching School will open Monday. Registration will continue thru-out the week.

Large Number of Citizens Greet Farley Thursday

James A. Farley, Postmaster General, was greeted in Canyon Thursday afternoon by a large number of citizens. He appeared on the platform and made a short talk while the train stopped at the station.

Thomas Newell, W. T. senior, won a bet in getting to introduce the genial visitor. Newell boarded the train in Amarillo, telling Farley that he had up a wager that he would introduce the visitor in Canyon. Farley smilingly agreed to help Newell win the bet.

Farley has been speaking from the platform of his train on his long trip throughout the Southwest.

Mrs. Lawrence Clark Died Tuesday Morning at Turkey, Texas

Mrs. Lawrence Clark died Tuesday morning at Turkey. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the Church of Christ. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark Sunday, and is reported to be doing nicely.

Coach and Mrs. Al Baggett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox and Conway Butler, captain of the Buffalo basketball team, attended the funeral service.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark have lived in Canyon for the past four years. He has been a prominent athlete in W. T. and was captain of the basketball team last year.

Tax Values Are Increased Over Entire County

10% Increase Is Made by Commissioners in Order To Equalize With Other Counties

Practically all property owners in Randall county will receive notice next week of a raise of 10% in valuations as made by the Commissioners Court which is sitting as a Board of Equalization this week. Approximately 5,000 notices will be mailed by County Clerk A. B. Holt by next Tuesday.

The policy of making a uniform raise of 10% is the result of three reductions which have been made during the past few years. Two reductions were made of 10% each, and a third reduction of 16 2/3% was made. This totals 36 2/3% which has been cut from county valuations during the depression years. As a result of the reductions, values in Randall county are below most of the counties in the Panhandle. The commissioners are seeking to equalize property values, not only within the county, but likewise equalize valuations with the surrounding counties in the Panhandle.

The law provides that notices must be sent to all property owners when valuations are raised. However, it is unlikely that few property owners will appear before the commissioners when they find that the increase is a uniform one for the county.

Randall county is in excellent financial condition. The court house was paid out this past month. The bulk of the county debt consists of the outstanding highway bonds. The state has assumed a large percent of these bonds, and is paying annually the interest on these bonds.

W. T. High School Senior Class Gives Two Dictionaries

Seniors of the high school of the West Texas State Teachers College believe students and teachers should have better vocabularies. To this end they gave as their parting gift to the high school two unabridged dictionaries and instructed that one was to be placed in an English classroom and the other in the office of the principal, Miss Jennie C. Ritchie.

July 1st Is Date Set For Moving to the New Postoffice

It is planned to move to the new postoffice building on the first of July, states Postmaster Guy Harp.

The contractors will complete their work about the 15th of this month, if no delays interrupt the finishing job.

Practically all of the furniture and fixtures have been received. The boxes have not arrived, but it is anticipated that they will be received before the end of the month.

Even should the postoffice be completed before the end of June, it is anticipated that the business will not move to the new quarters before the first of July. The fiscal year of the government closes June 30th, and changes made at that time would save much confusion in the local office.

Clean Up Work Is Held Up As Rain Continues

Wagons to Start Cleaning Up Alleys and Vacant Lots With First Fair Weather

The clean up campaign in Canyon has been practically at a stand-still during the past ten days.

Mayor C. R. Burrow announced yesterday that owing to the rains it was hard to say when the clean-up wagons could be started. The alleys over the town are too muddy for operation of the wagons.

City officials urge that all citizens continue cleaning up their premises. Pile all rubbish that will not burn in the alleys, and the wagons will be started just as quickly as the alleys dry.

Weeds are getting a big start in Canyon and it is very necessary that the alleys and vacant lots be cleared of rubbish so that the weeds may be cut with the mowing machine.

City officials have ordered that all of the unsightly old machinery and automobiles standing in the alleys of the business section and in other parts of town be hauled to the dump grounds when the campaign gets underway.

Prof. L. F. Sheffy of W. T. was honored Monday night when the degree of Doctors of Letters was conferred on him by Austin College of Sherman. Dr. T. S. Clyce, president emeritus, conferred the degree.

The degree was conferred in recognition of Mr. Sheffy's "contribution to historical literature in the Panhandle-Plains region." Cape Jasmine has long been used for special occasions in the South, but it remained for W. J. Wooten to bring it to the Commencement of the college.

Monday as the graduates left the stage each was presented a white flower, the fragrance from the 103 bouquets spreading over the entire auditorium.

Orville Cunningham, president of the class, expressed the appreciation of all the members when he said, "No courtesy which has been extended us has touched our hearts more than this one. Mr. Wooten has done many things for us, and this last one is one which we shall always remember."

Box Supper Will Be Staged Friday of Next Week

Local Committee Sets the Goal of $500 to Aid High School Band in Buying Horns

Plans are rapidly developing for the community box supper which will be held at the public schools on Friday night, June 11th. This event will be held for the benefit of the public school band. The drive is on to raise $500 for the purpose of buying four big horns for the school band.

Rev. and Mrs. Bessire and family have lived in Canyon eight years and leave many friends who wish them well in their new home.

Rev. and Mrs. Wiley will live at the missionary home, 1910 Seventh Avenue.

Jarrett Drug Store Installs 100-Gallon Ice Cream Freezer

C. H. Jarrett of the Jarrett Drug Store has installed this week a Tuthill Ice Cream Freezer which will enable his store to mix and freeze its own ice cream and sherbet.

The Freezer has a 100-gallon capacity storage space arranged in twelve compartments which are maintained at a temperature of 24 degrees below zero. Ice cream and sherbets are mixed in quantities of 2 1/2 gallon lots and may be frozen in containers ranging in size from pints to five gallons. Eight hours are required for the freezing process.

Mr. Jarrett announced that thirteen flavors in ice creams and sherbets would be available and that special orders may be prepared provided a day's notice is given to allow for the freezing time.

2.43 Inches of Rain Falls During Past Week

Flood Waters Overflows Creeks, Doing Damage to Highways and Railroads of Plains

WHEAT IMPROVED

7.69 Inches of Rain Is Record So Far This Year, Beating Fall of Last Spring

Rain Thursday, Friday and Tuesday added 2.43 inches to the moisture which was reported last week. A light shower of .13 inch fell Thursday night; 1.55 inches on Friday and .75 inch Tuesday.

The total rainfall for May was 5.22 inches, and the total for the year is 7.69 inches. This compares with 5.62 received in May of 1936 and a total of 7.05 inches during 1936 up to the middle of June.

Every section of the Panhandle has been thoroughly drenched during the past ten days. The rainfall has varied in different sections of Northwest Texas, in some places the downpour has amounted to almost a cloudburst.

The highway south of Canyon was under water Saturday and Sunday. Traffic was detoured east of Canyon as the water was too deep for traffic. Considerable damage was done to the roadbed south of Canyon. It is believed that many of the trees in the wayside park will be killed by water standing on them so long. The high water has not yet receded along the Palo Duro. The dam at the Palo Duro Club north-east of Canyon went out Sunday.

For the first time since the Amarillo lake was built, water went over the spillway Saturday and Sunday.

The Santa Fe is the only railroad in this section which was not handicapped by high waters. Trains from other lines were diverted over the Santa Fe greatly increasing traffic on the main line through canyon.

Wheat prospects greatly improved as the result of the heavy rains this week. If favorable weather continues, there will be a much larger wheat crop this year than last year.

Miss Lillian Donnell Died Yesterday; Funeral Thursday p. m.

Lillian Donnell, 33, daughter of Dr. C. E. Donnell of this city, died early Wednesday morning at the family residence, 1705 Fifth Avenue, following an illness of several months duration.

Burial will be this afternoon at Silvertown, Texas. Services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church of Canyon with Rev. J. A. Lindley of Tulsa officiating. Pall bearers will be W. H. Hardin, G. B. Heath, G. W. Johnson, A. B. Holt, Henry Long, and E. H. Porter.

Miss Donnell was born March 11, 1904 at Dimmitt, Castro County, Texas, and came to Canyon fifteen years ago with her family. She was graduated from the West Texas State Teachers College in 1927, having majored in Primary Education and Geography. While a student in the college she was a member of the Scholarship Society, the Sesame Literary Society and was a student assistant in the library.

Following her graduation she taught two years in the public schools in Post, two years in Canyon, and then went to Amarillo where she was a member of the public school system there until she became ill last year.

She was a member of the Amarillo Baptist church. She is survived by her father, Dr. C. E. Donnell, and two brothers, Reeves and Charles Donnell, all of Canyon.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lige Frieze this week are Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Tanner of Terrill and Mrs. Ed Pilley and son of Levelland. Mrs. Tanner is Mrs. Frieze's mother and Mrs. Pilley is her sister.

Has the Nebraska experiment of a one-house legislature been a success? Maybe so, maybe not. Those who have carefully followed the Nebraska plan differ in opinion. There are many on both sides of the question. While the Nebraska plan is not an experiment so far as government goes, it is distinctly an experiment in these United States under modern conditions. The plan may or may not succeed. Its success is based upon the idea of keeping politics out of legislative proceedings. That is very unlikely. Nebraska is a rather closely divided political state. Both major parties will attempt to hold the balance of power in the legislature. While many citizens are advocating the establishment of the one-house legislature in this state, it is unlikely that the change will be made in the near future. It is well to stop, think and consider such a radical change, and to watch the experiments of other states. Until a primary campaign is held in Texas, based strictly upon this reform there is very small likelihood of the change being made.

Wasn't it a shame to see that water flowing down the Palo Duro? Had the big dam south of Umparger been constructed, it would no doubt have been filled by the heavy rains. The solution of the dust bowl is to hold the water which falls in this area. Whether the water shall be saved by a series of small dams, or a few big ones is of little concern, just so the water is held on the Plains. Rains like the ones which fell last week could not be held by small lakes, and therefore the construction of a few big dams in this section seems imperative.

NEW FARM UNION

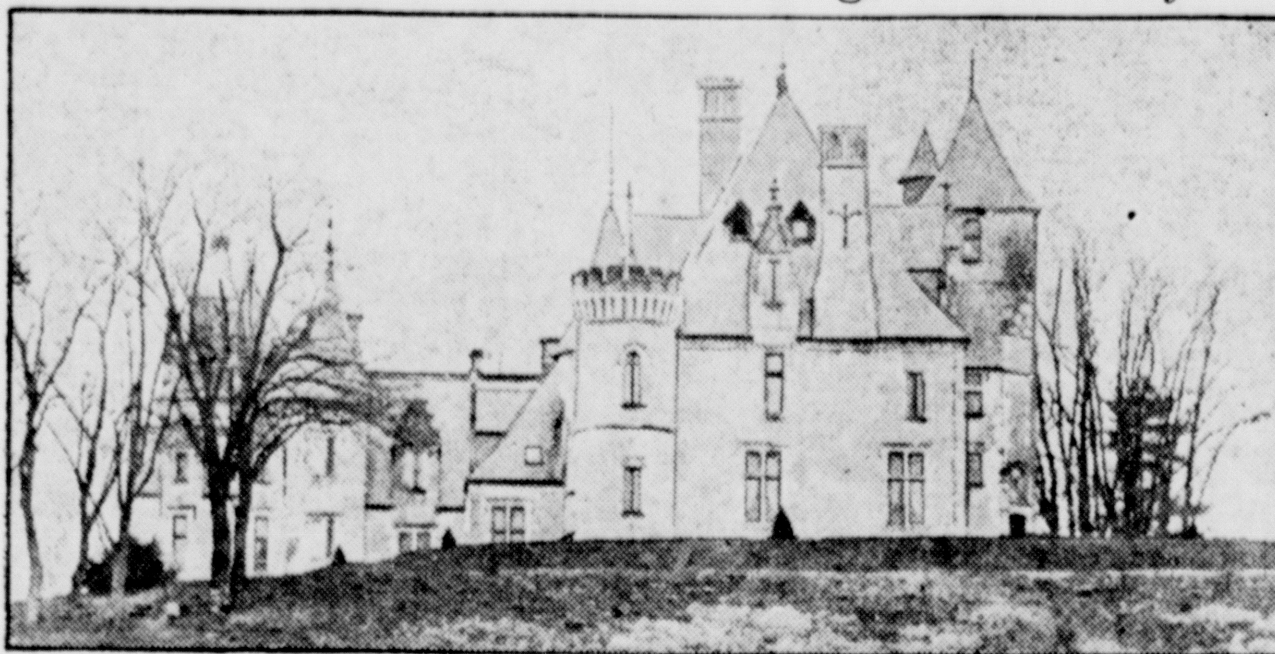

Canyon News: Randall County farmers have established a name for themselves in Texas. The farmers of Randall County have the best organization in the State, and have done more for the interest of agriculture than the farmers of any other county in the state. The necessity of the times put the farmers in the right frame of mind to carry out all phases of the governmental program. But other factors are of vital importance even in the case of necessity. First, a county agent who knows his business, second, the election of district leaders who are outstanding as farmers and are willing to devote the necessary time to the job. Randall County has both of these leaders. It will be a very fine thing if the lessons of the depression and the drought remain with us for a long while. The idea of organization is very necessary in all phases of endeavor. A few years ago it was said that farmers could not be organized for any kind of popular movement. Perhaps this was true in the past, but it should never be true in the future. A sound governmental program for agriculture is certain to be established, and farmers today know the benefits of close co-operation for their own good and their own protection.

State Press in Dallas News: It was extremely difficult to organize the farmers and keep them organized before Federal aid came in. There were numerous attempts—the Grange, the Patrons of Husbandry, the Farmers' Alliance, the Farmers' Union, and others. All went to pieces as fast as the politicians could see into them which was pretty fast. But along came Mr. Roosevelt and his new deal, then, behold! The farmers saw a new light in the new deal and started singing new songs. They get paid for "signing up," which means joining up. No wonder they sign and join. If State Press were a farmer he would sign up with a flourish and join up with a jig. Some critics say the Government is subsidizing the farmers. No doubt it is, look what the Government is doing for the gold miners! Never such a subsidy since Adam was an urchin as the gold miners are getting. In other years farmers used to turn out some of their cotton ground when too wet. Now they rent the excess acreage to the government and get paid for it. Mr. Roosevelt's himself a farmer, in New York State. He raises Christmas trees.

Justice Van Devanter retires from the Supreme Court today. He was one of the four obstructionists who have voted against all New Deal measures. The cry which has been raised by lawyers against changes in the Supreme Court that the President seeks to "pack" the body falls for naught when it is realized that four members of the court have consistently voted against, and openly abused New Deal policies. The other five judges have been on both sides, liberal and conservative. So far as these four are concerned, the Supreme Court is already "packed" against the will of the people. The appointment of a successor to Justice Van Devanter will probably be made in a few days. He will be a liberal, in keeping with the views of the New Deal. Whether the President will profit by this resignation in his fight for court reform remains to be seen, but the chances are that by the time the Supreme Court convenes for its fall term, several new faces will appear in the court room.

Jim Farley, congenial postmaster general and chairman of the National Democratic party, made a sweep through the Southwest last week. Jim likes to meet the people. His publicity department sent word ahead that Jim was coming, and invited all towns to extend a welcome to the big chief. All towns were delighted to have Farley speak from the platform of his train. Farley is the potential

The Scene, the Cast in 'Wedding of a Century'

In the spacious library of the magnificent Chateau de Cande, above, near Monts, France, were Edward, the Duke of Windsor, right, and Wallis Warfield, left, to be married June 3, in the wedding of a century. But no member of the royal family was permitted to attend and the guest list was small. Interference of the British government precluded even the blessings of the Church of England. Hosts to the famous couple at the chateau were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bedaux of Cleveland. The ex-king's equerry was designated as his "best man." The Duke and his bride made plans to leave for Austria immediately after the wedding. They had been invited by their hosts to visit Alaska later.

Democratic nominee in 1940; but he dropped the word that there is a strong demand for a third term for President Roosevelt. The third term has been a hurdle over which no President has been able to hop. But Roosevelt has smashed so many precedents that no one can safely predict what might happen in 1940. Great political events face the American people during the coming four years.

The session of the legislature which ended last week has been considerably abused in the press of the state and by citizens who have written to the press. All in all the session was not bad. A lot of good measures were not considered, but this is the case in each and every legislative session. The fuss between the Governor and the Senate over the race horse gambling bill has been responsible for most of the confusion and delay in legislation. If the people will re-elect the able and capable members of the present legislature, instead of defeating those who have tried to do something worth while for the state, the next regular session will be able to accomplish more than the present session did.

John D. Rockefeller did not live to be 100 years of age as he often expressed a desire. But during his years on earth he did much good for humanity. He lived a clean personal life. He amassed a great fortune, but gave millions of his money back to the good of humanity. The little fellow often wonders how it is that one man can make such a fabulous fortune, and why it is that so few men are blessed with such faculties. Mr. Rockefeller leaves a heritage of which he felt very proud: Monuments to the upbuilding of mankind; a family which seems to be composed of men and women of same ideals in spite of the wealth of the grand old man.

Many of the small newspapers over the nation are greatly peeved at the liquor interests for neglecting the country advertising field. Most of the advertising money goes to the city newspapers and the magazines. The country papers can defeat the liquor crowd any time they will band together and put up a fight on liquor. That fight is rapidly approaching since the liquor crowd will not tell the truth. The open saloon has been banished by law, but continues in operation.

The Panhandle lost a real man and a great citizen last week when Horace M. Russell died in Amarillo. Few citizens of this great section had taken such an active part in all phases of community life and activities as had Mr. Russell. His connection with the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society has been a real contribution to this section of Texas.

What glories of the past go to smash when the proud old building is wrecked in the way of progress. Even the very bricks would weep if endowed with human functions and could realize that their usefulness of yesterday is junked for progress.

Congratulations

To the County officials for their efforts in the preparation of the court house lawn for a much more beautiful spot than heretofore. As little as we may think of it this place is the civic center of our town and the civic pride of our citizenship is reflected by its appearance to every traveler passing through Canyon. Flowers and shrubbery would add much to the beauty and we hope they will be included. Florida Sea-Turtle Skeleton Placed In the Museum

The complete skeleton of a Florida sea-turtle is on exhibition in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. The turtle weighing 300 pounds, was killed in Florida and given to the Museum by Prof. C. Stuart Johnston.

It represents one of the largest reptiles now in existence, and belongs to a reptile group whose origin dates back 100 million years. The eggs are about the size of a golf ball and have a thick tough leathery shell. They bounce like a rubber ball and are considered a great delicacy.

Tierra Blanca News

The heavy rains of last week were certainly fine on the wheat crops, but they proved to be a disadvantage to the highway travelers who had to detour about four miles to get around the Palo Duro bridge south of Canyon. The water covered a good deal of the highway on each side of the bridge. The water has gone down to normal size now.

Man's Most Ambitious Attempt to Scan Universe Proves Staggering Task

PASADENA, Calif.—Disinterested scientists gathered around the 850-ton steel framework of the world's largest telescope in South Philadelphia the other day and discussed the time in 1940 when man expects to double, even triple, his visual knowledge of the universe.

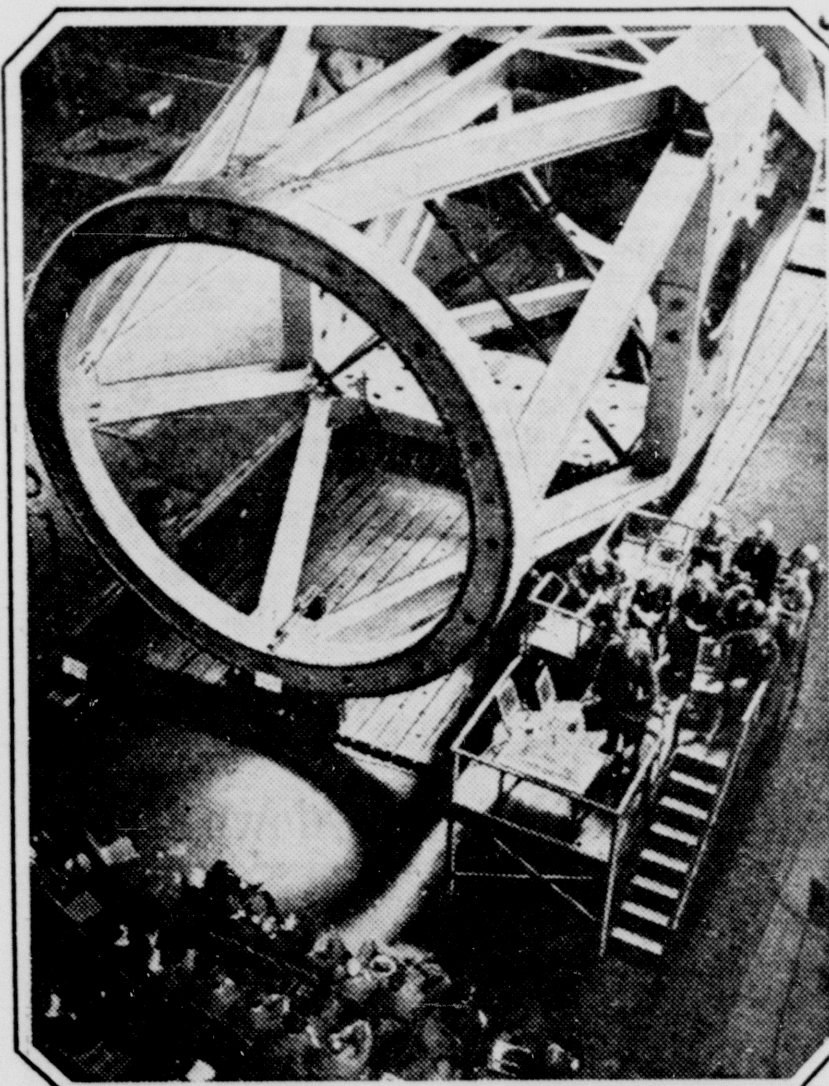

The occasion was the fitting of the last bolt into the welded structure of the 200-inch, $2,000,000 "eye" which is to be installed atop Mt. Palomar, near here, in the next three years. The "eye" itself was transported across the country on a special train several months ago. Therein lies one of the most amazing stories of astronomical science.

It began in 1928. In that year plans were laid for the construction of the world's biggest telescope in the hope that new wonders of the heavens would be opened to man. Six years later, after the most meticulous preparations, the pouring of the giant mold took place on Dec. 1, 1934. A total of 104 ladles of molten glass were poured at a temperature one-fifth as hot as the sun.

A full year was taken to cool this mass, degree by degree, to room temperature. Finally, a special car carried the rough 200-inch glass from Corning, N. Y., to Pasadena. It is here that the other half of the telescope job is now under way. This is the grinding process.

BEHIND shades drawn against the sun, in a dustless air-conditioned optical laboratory, skilled glass-grinders and astronomers are gradually shaping and hollowing out the huge eye to a concave parabolized surface. This will be about four inches lower at its center than at the edges. So delicate is the grinding operation that imperfections of a millionth of an inch are perceived and eliminated.

To accomplish this job, the huge eye has been placed on a 50-ton turntable, 20 feet square. The glass itself weighs 20 tons. This turntable revolves once in each two minutes and discs on a rotating arm hollow out the rough surface bit by bit. By 1940, or perhaps a little earlier, scientists hope to have completed this operation.

Occasion of real scientific interest was this in South Philadelphia as savants gathered to watch the fitting of the last bolt into the skeleton structure of the 200-inch Mt. Palomar telescope. The gigantic mounting shown here is the tube for the 500-ton "eye" which should be in operation by 1940.

When this is completed, the mounting of the telescope on its steel frame will proceed. The framework will be shipped across the country from its eastern factory. It probably will require a special train, too.

MEANWHILE, other preparations are under way here to insure man a new glimpse into the universe three years hence. On top of 6126-foot Mt. Palomar, a great acreage has been bought where a new observatory is to be built to accommodate scientists from the California Institute of Technology and other institutions. Roads are being built up the mountain to transport material and eventually accommodations will include a flying field, an observatory, laboratory and other buildings. A million dollars worth of buildings to house auxiliary instruments and apparatus already have been built at California Tech.

In all, somewhere between $6,000,000 and $10,000,000 will be spent on this ambitious project, backed by the Rockefeller Foundation. When the job is completed, a man will sit in the end of a 55-foot latticed metal tube, turn a single switch and the gargantuan 200-inch eye will swing into position to penetrate new depths of the unknown.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Enter the Stratosphere Flight, Aviation's Newest, 'Highest' Achievement

Modern wonder is this huge stratosphere plane, the type which is now under construction at Seattle by Boeing. Six of these planes have been ordered by TWA.

AVIATION is going up—and up and up!

Consider that all-weather stratosphere flight you will be able to make one of these days when the industry puts into service the giant "upper level" liners now under construction.

Most fascinating chapter of modern aviation will be their launching. Four-engined, much larger than any commercial land plane now in service on the country's airways, these new Boeing stratosphere ships, being built in Seattle, will introduce a new era of air travel in America.

Spacious accommodations for 32 passengers, daytime, and 26 passengers at night; 18 of them in upper and lower berths and eight others in sleeper chairs.

Travel in a specially sealed cabin, supplied with air by two mechanical super-chargers which produce conditions comparable to those at present-day flight levels of 8000 to 12,000 feet.

Speeds of 250 miles per hour. Altitudes up to 35,000 feet, free of all meteorological disturbances, the stronger winds and other hindrances to flying.

Operation of a 42,000-pound ship by a crew of four, the ship carrying 3700 pounds of airmail and air express in addition to its passenger load, more than the entire payload of many transport planes now in operation.

PROGRESS you say. Yes, but this is not all of the story.

The first of these planes, say their builders, will be merely the forerunners of the really giant planes which will streak across the heavens in a very few years, perhaps months, hence. This is so because the airplane is no longer very definitely limited by its power output. The limits today are determined by airport size and the problems of handling a plane while on the ground.

Take these new Boeings, for example. Each will be powered with four motors capable of turning out 1220 horsepower at the takeoff. This is a new achievement in plane manipulation on the ground. Moreover, it is expected by the close of 1937 that these engine units will be stepped up to 1800 horsepower.

Fundamentally, of course, the real development in stratosphere flying is the provision for high altitude travel. All compartments within these planes will be completely sealed through the use of pressure-tight skin, reinforced windows and pressure doors—all built for a designed pressure of six pounds to the square inch and an operating pressure of 2½ pounds to the square inch differential between outside air and inside air.

TWO newly developed mechanical superchargers, each operating on only a fraction of the horsepower of one engine, will draw the air through intake valves far out along the leading edge of the wings, building up its pressure for introduction into the cabin.

After the air is pumped through the wings, it will be uniformly distributed through ducts into the cabin where exhaust valves will be located.

Thus, flying at an altitude of 20,000 feet, which is on a level with the summit of Mount McKinley, highest peak in North America, you would have within your plane, conditions comparable to those at present flight levels.

You will fly, moreover, above storm, in smoother air and with greater speed. New York to San Francisco, dawn to dusk, will be routine. Europe and back for a week-end will be entirely possible. Aviation is not only going up; it's going places faster.

War Admiral Proves His Greatness; but You 'Ain't Seen Nothin'' Yet

Victory smiled on young War Admiral, inset, for the second time in a week when he won the coveted Preakness at Pimlico, Baltimore, Md., a crowd shot of which is shown above. War Admiral already had won the Kentucky Derby.

BY IRVING DIX

THERE is a belief that children born to parents late in life are sure to be precocious and grow up to be brilliant men and women.

Young Mr. War Admiral, saucy, whinny-some little three-year-old son of Man o' War, seems to bear out this belief.

War Admiral, you see, was born when the King o' the Track was an elderly great-great-grandfather of 17 springs. And, strangely, he is the most brilliant of all Big Red's get—far superior, for instance, to Big Red's chillun of 10 years ago.

The Admiral, in fact, might very well turn out to be one of the truly great horses of all time—possibly better than his pappy was.

He can do everything on the track but lose. The Admiral can win in a breeze, or he can win saill set to sky. He won the Kentucky Derby in a breeze; he won the Preakness under full sail.

He can sprint, he can go the route; he can be a front runner (even as his pappy), and he can beat back the late challengers.

THE Admiral really hasn't shown his true form yet. In the Derby he had no competition; in the Preakness the track was sloppy and slow. And yet only one other horse has ever run the Derby faster than he, and only one other has covered the Preakness distance quicker.

There's no telling just what he would do on a fast track with the hot breath of a classy pursuer on his tail spurring him on.

But there's not much chance that he will be forced to the limit this year. He's not only the best of the 3-year-olds, but he's the best of any age, it seems.

Granville and Bold Venture, last year's three-year-old standouts, might have been able to give him a run for the customers' money, but they have been forced out of racing.

The rest of the gang will be also-rans when the Admiral steps out. Whopper, Snark, Seabiscuit, Rosemont, Special Agent, Grand Manito, Memory Book, Indian Runner, Calumet Dick, Indian Broom and Time Supply—why, they look like selling platters alongside this young whipper-snapper son of the aging Man o' War.

The Admiral, of course, won't win every big race this year. He won't run in some, and in others the law of averages will catch up to him, if nothing else does.

He'll lose now and then, but in the long run—or the short, too, for that matter—the Admiral will be on top. It's Anchors Aweigh for him.

Commencement Activities End For 103 W. T. Graduates

Professor S. H. Condon, Class Sponsor, Gives Address Monday Morning at 10:00 O'clock

The Spring section of the 1937 graduating class of W. T. has removed its caps and gowns and its members have taken their places among hundreds of other graduates of the institution. 103 members of the class received Bachelors Degrees, and one man received the Master of Arts Degree.

Condon Gives Address

Addressing the class on their Commencement Day, Prof. Stuart H. Condon, head of the government department and class sponsor, said: "The direction in which we are going is more important than the speed at which we move." Developing his thought of social direction, Professor Condon called attention to the fact that despotism is always opposed to social change and that democracy is safe only if it welcomes change and recognizes it as essential.

In closing his address he said: "Each age must work out its own pattern of life to serve mankind's needs. The people of the world who have had opportunity to learn to think and to inform themselves are especially responsible for the direction which society takes. If the young people of the United States accept their responsibility as citizens anxious for better social conditions, democracy will continue."

Scholarships Awarded

During the Commencement program, Ardis Patman of Clarendon was awarded the Mary E. Hudspeth Scholarship of $100 given annually to the outstanding student in the Department of Spanish. Other awards of the year will be announced later.

For the first time in the history of his administration, President J. A. Hill was absent. He was delivering the Commencement address at the State Teachers College at Huntsville on the occasion of Dr. H. F. Estill's retirement after fifty years of service in the schools of Texas. In Dr. Hill's absence, degrees were conferred by Dr. R. P. Jarrett who is Dean of the College.

Alpha Chi Members

Students whose names appeared on the Commencement program as current members of Alpha Chi were: Amarillo: Marian Wade, Mary Ruth Conrad, Elizabeth Deal, Erma Jane Pate; Canyon: Mrs. Mary Sliger, Lee Christine Cousins, Hilda Miller, J. C. Baker, Don Savage, Mrs. R. E. Tarter, Katherine Robinson, Margery Tankersley, Landon Terry; Memphis: Mildred Lindsey; Parnell: Margaret Cope; Albany: Anna Mae Flesher; Gruver: Royce Park; Tulla: Otis Harman; Perryton: Virginia King; Stratford: Mrs. Guy Tabor; Canadian: Georgene Henson; Bono: Irene Coke; Hereford: Mary Kate Brotherton, Louise Hamm; Lark: Ross Wilson; Claude: Ora Mae Harris; Gageby: Ruth Dill; Panchandle: Hope Bussey; Allison: O. J. Richardson; Lockney: Roach Allen.

The Rev. Dr. J. Howard Williams of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo, delivered the Baccalaureate address to the 103 members of the graduating class at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Speaking on "Master Motives," Dr. Williams told the class, "You have the unescapable responsibility of taking upon yourself some task."

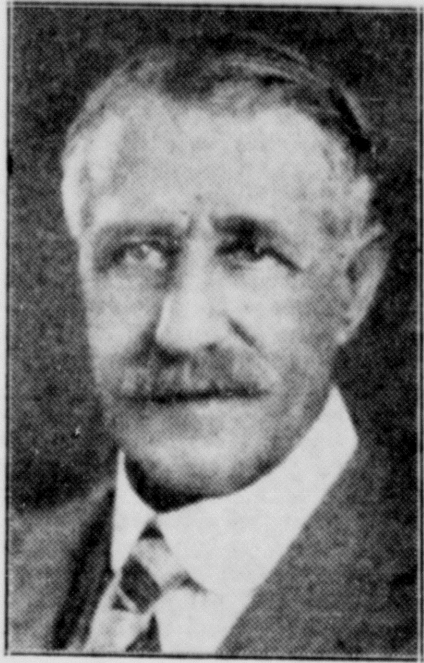

Great tasks make great men, he said.

Recalling the young Alexander the Great's bemoaning the fact that he had no more worlds to conquer, Dr. Williams, declared that he was staggered by the words that he must conquer.

The great motivating forces in life are not honor, riches, nor fame, but the greatest motivating force is to serve your day and generation.

The Baccalaureate program was as follows:

Guests in the R. D. Lowry home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hay of Aruba, Dutch West Indies; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lawson; Miss Vada Lawson and Kermit Lawson of Pampa, and Charles Hay of Raton, New Mexico.

Mr. Mack Hay is associated with the Standard Oil Company of New York and has been in South America and Aruba, 39 miles off the coast of South America, for a period of ten years. He and Mrs. Hay, who are spending a two month's vacation in the States, came to Texas by plane, landing at the English Air Field in Amarillo. They returned to New York after their visit here and will sail for Aruba June 19.

Mr. Kermit Lawson is employed in the Chemical Department of the Phillips Petroleum Company in Pampa, and Mr. Charles Hay is a student at T. C. U. in Fort Worth.

The visitors were guests at a picnic at Six Mile Crossing Sunday.

W. T. Oliver Installs Butane Gas System

W. T. Oliver has installed a Butane gas plant in his country home east of Canyon. Mr. Oliver states that he now has a gas service in his home comparable in cost and operation to the natural gas in town.

The gas is developed from a liquefied petroleum product which is stored in an underground tank. The butane vaporizes as the gas is used, the gas flowing through pipes into the house, as does natural gas.

The plant was installed by Herschel Jennings of the Household Appliance Company.

Mrs. N. E. McIntire and granddaughter Jean, and Pat Whittington left Saturday for El Paso for a visit with Mrs. Pat Whittington who is in the Sanitarium there.

schools. Dr. Sheffy has been connected with the work of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society since it was founded. He has been secretary for a number of years. When it was decided to build the museum, Dr. Sheffy raised more than $30,000 in cash from citizens of Northwest Texas who were interested in putting over the project. The legislature gave $25,000 to the building fund, making possible the erection of Pioneer Hall.

When the Centennial fund was being distributed, Dr. Sheffy appeared before the commission to present the plea for funds and $25,000 was given to build the basement of the second unit of the museum. He is now working with New Mexico and Arizona on the plan to celebrate the 400th anniversary of Coronado in this territory. If the plan goes over, the Historical Society will receive sufficient funds to complete the second unit, and the museum will be the center of the celebration so far as Texas is concerned.

The honor conferred upon Dr. Sheffy is the second time that educational institutions of Texas have recognized the work of W. T. faculty members. Simmons University conferred the LL. D. upon President J. A. Hill several years ago.

Flood Washed Out Dam at Palo Duro Club on Sunday

The concrete dam at the Palo Duro Club grounds northeast of Canyon was washed out Sunday. The dam has been threatened several times in recent years during high waters, and was badly washed out. CCC men have been working on the dam for several months attempting to strengthen it.

The dam formed one of the best lakes in the Panhandle and was well stocked with fish. Amarillo people own most of the shares in the club. D. Mack Stewart is manager of the property.

The Six-Mile crossing bridge was not damaged by the high water, although the approach was badly washed at the south end. Commissioner G. B. Heath is watching the bridge where much work has been done during the past year. When the water goes down, much work must be done to repair the approach.

The Amarillo Dam west of Canyon was filled and water went over the spillway for the first time since the dam was constructed. Amarillo officials kept a large force of men at the dam during the high water, but no damage was reported. The dam is safe, according to report of engineers, and the spillway is in excellent state of repair to handle all of the surplus water.

Water went over the highway south of Canyon Saturday and Sunday, causing considerable damage to the roadbed.

Farm Program

The range program. This acreage added to the farm program makes a total of 554,376 acres which are accounted for out of the total of 590,000 acres within the boundary of the county. The balance of the county is taken up by the Palo Duro Canyon, creeks, highways, W. T. campus and lands, city property and railroads.

Airplane photographs have been taken of the county. Maps from these photographs will be available to all land owners of the county sometime this fall. The maps will give an accurate picture from the air of every piece of land in the county. The exact acreage of each farm is found through this method. The airplane maps have been in use in the other states for the past two years in figuring acreage under the government program. All of the Panhandle north of Swisher county has been taken from the air, and each county will be furnished these maps as quickly as they may be completed.

The county committee has been very careful in making measurements of all land under the agricultural program, and believes that the pictures taken from the air will show very few discrepancies in the figures that have been compiled of lands in this county.

Mrs. Upchurch accompanied Mr. Upchurch to College Station, and Louis will return home with them the latter part of the week.

All classified advertisements must be paid in advance unless arrangements are made in person to care for the payment of them.
